

Francis BEDEL

IT International Affairs SNCF Fret

President of Raildata

Francis BEDEL is graduated with a Applied Foreign Languages Degree and North American Literature and Civilization degree from the University of Nancy (France).

He acted as French Teacher in UK (North Wales) in 1980/81

Francis started his career at SNCF in 1982.

He started by 2 years training in all SNCF activities (station manager, freight and passenger area, Human resources, accounting...).

In 1984, he was appointed as manager of an important signal box in the Parisian area.

He assumed then different functions such as traffic manager, manager of Freight station, manager of an intermodal terminal.

In 1990, he joined SNCF IT Department to work on the roll out of a national project aiming at redesign the management of Freight wagons.

From 1993 till 1997, he has been responsible for the operation of Freight IT local bases (marshalling yards IT)

From 1997, he has been appointed as responsible for IT international affairs.

Francis has been RAILDATA General Secretary from 1999 till 2013. He has also been RAILDATA Vice-President from 2008 till 2013.

Since 2013, he is RAILDATA President and is active in different international activities and projects.