

Luca Mariorenzi

International Systems and GDS at Trenitalia

President of ISR Assembly of Raildata

Luca Mariorenzi graduated with an Electronic Engineering Degree from the University of “Roma Tre” in 2001.

In 2007, he attained a Master in “Data Intelligence and Decisional Strategies” at the University of Roma “La Sapienza” – Statistics Dptm.

Luca’s career began in 2002 at Sistemi Informativi of Divisione Cargo of Trenitalia, where till 2004 he worked mainly in development of IT added value services to customers.

In 2004 he joined IT Department (DSI) of Trenitalia gaining 10 years experience in a variety of roles in IT Project Management and business leadership, including periods of work in IT international affairs, customer relationship mngm systems, timetabling, operation, tracking and tracing systems, consignment note data exchange, passenger IT international sales and ticketing systems.

Since 2008 Luca joined Raildata team, providing expertise in development of IT systems within the international community of freight RU companies.

Luca Mariorenzi was appointed President of the ISR (International Service Reliability) Assembly of Raildata in 2008 in order to develop the services of tracking and tracing of the new platform born from the cooperation of the major Freight Ru’s in Europe.

His current role at DSI since 2013 is responsibility in international systems in passenger and freight domain.

Under this responsibility Luca focused on Global Distribution Systems, dealing with major GDS partners and supports as well Thello company (majority owned by TI) in the development of IT e-commerce platform and sales IT systems within Trenitalia architecture.